How You Can Get Used

Editor, The Record:

A Communist handbook giving precise instructions, with 24 hand-drawn diagrams, in organizing riots against the police and other constituted authority was described to the Senate internal security subcommittee in testimony released last September for public distribution.

Mr. Lyman B. Kirkpatrick, Inspector-General of the Central Intelligence Agency, made the report with the substantiating data, and said:

"Those not familiar with Communist techniques will more easily understand, by examining the pictures, how a few well-trained Communist agitators can utilize crowds for their purposes.

"It is probable that few of the demonstrators realize that they are victims of a war being waged in the free world today."
